At the personal request of the members of the building committee I went to Arakal on the 18th inst. in company with Mr. P. Gopalarajan who took a personal interest in the construction of the Arakal Temple. Except for a gopuram on the Southern and a pandal-work the main temple is complete. The work is excellently done and it reflects great credit upon the members of the building committee. The compound wall also is also complete. The value of the work turned out is great deal more than the cost incurred and this is reported to be due to the utilization of worked stone from a dilapidated temple. This conveyance gratis by the surrounding villagers and the personal supervision exercised by the committee members.

While thus the work reflects credit upon the members deputed and the Tahsildar of Chirayinkil, I feel some satisfaction in having taken up the unpleasant in the case. No formal sanction of Govt. appears to have been taken for the utilisation of the old temple stones and for the construction of the temple itself. Estimates were not formally sanctioned, nor were payments made after prescription of contractors' bills for check. Further the subscriptions collected appear to have remained in the hands of the Committee and spent upon the work.

Temples are irregularly deserving relief, they are dear both to the pious and to the archæologist but perhaps the work without waiting for the whole amount being collected. As a rule people are more prone to give liberal subscriptions when a work is actually progressing and this seems to have been another reason for retarding the work. The irregularities may therefore be condoned.

As a matter of encouragement and to complete the work so well done, it appears that some substantial contributions towards the work should be forthcoming.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that it is reported that the temple of Sri Thimmaraya Swami at Anekal which is a Muzrai institution, was an ordinary small building with no sufficient accommodation for the large number of devotees who would assemble there especially at the times of annual Jatras. It was a long-felt desire of the devotees, who hold the temple in great veneration, to effect Suitable improvements. Accordingly Some of the leading gentlemen of the place formed themselves into a Committee and collected Sub-Scriptions and reconstructed the temple at a cost of Rs 5821/- The accompanying plans Show the building as it was before improvement, and as it is now.

to

2 The devotees State that according to the proposed plan most of the works have been done and that they can complete all the works at their own Cost, except the Yagasala, the Maha Dwaram and the two Gopurams which are estimated to cost a total Sum of Rs 3314/-.

3 They represent that they have no funds to meet the Cost of these items as it is not possible to collect any further Subscriptions especially in these hard days of Scarcity, and therefore pray that the above Sum of Rs 3314. may be Sanctioned from Government

the Doddaballapur Sub Division who inspected the temple personally on the 6th April 1914, States that the devotees have contributed more than Rs 5000/- and have spent almost the whole of that Sum, that the work is done very economically and well, that the Yagasala is indispensible and that the Gopurams etc to enhance the importance of the temple; further that as the people have contributed such a large Sum of money as over 5000 Rupees, their request for Government aid is not unreasonable; and requests that that the grant of a Sum of Rs 3314/- may be recommended to be Sanctioned from the State funds

5 I beg to Submit herewith the Connected records for the orders of Government.

6 It appears to me to be necessary to lay down the lines on which Contributions may be made to Bungrai Institutions from from General Revenues, so that all such cases may be disposed of in a uniform manner.

The name of the temple has been included in the list of Dharmic Institutions requiring help for their repairs from the State grant of the year 1914-15, submitted with my letter No 5916 dated the 11th May 1914
